

ntion.

ss. A pair of pistons are e shaft and oppositely dis- ents. By increasing the the hub of the shaft, a ge is obtained and there- power.

se-power engine of this upy a space only two feet ut fifteen inches high. It at a factory for its man- be established in Pueblo.

PEOPLE ROPERTY

ns and a bank with a 00,000.

r advised his hearers to eir efforts and to build where they can control e a property owner, was gain independence, and ter was the basis of all omery advised the colored to the country and till s they would be able to d in time own their prop- ter where they were, they to work for their own and the members of the each delivered short ad-

ERSONALS

Burton, clerk of the dis- and wife, left yesterday days' visit in Colorado Cripple Creek.

. McNutt and daughter Mrs. E. Cooley will re- ening from an extended anapolis, Ind., and other ts.

Pederson, of Milwaukee, guest of Mr. and Mrs. on, of 1128 Orman avenue.

ack has been assigned to pany No. 1 at the city iver. He has been on the for some time at other Harg and Arthur Bullen f Archie Pearson at Pine ulah.

Pearson, of Beulah, visited veral days last week.

acer has gone to Colby, been employed as sten-

TO SETTLE ESTATE—R. D. Taylor left last evening for Blossburg, Pa., to settle up the estate of his father, Edward L. Taylor, who died suddenly recently. Mr. Taylor's father took suddenly ill while on a pleasure trip and died shortly after reaching his home. He was one of the most highly respected local railroad men and has many friends here.

FOUND GUILTY—Harry Miller was found guilty of disturbing the peace of James Johnson and fined $1 and costs amounting to $29 by Justice McMinn yesterday afternoon. It was claimed that the affair arose from a drunken brawl that occurred in their neighborhood some time ago.

PLEADS GUILTY—J. W. Jallip pleaded guilty before Justice McMinn yesterday to the charge of having made threats against the life of a fellow man and was fined $1 and costs which amounted to $53.

FINISH TODAY.—The suit of Dennis Burke and others against the Sisters of Charity, which is on trial in the district court, was not finished yesterday, as was expected. The testimony will be finished today, probably, after which Judge Essex will have the enormous task of reviewing the testimony and reaching a decision. The case has been hard fought by the attorneys for both sides.

You may save bother next winter by buying coal now. For prices and information apply to The Forbush Fuel Co. Tel. M 175.

DIED.

SIMPSON—Tuesday, August 27, 1907, in this city, J. M. Simpson. The remains are at McMahon & Collier's parlors and funeral announcement will be made later.

HATHAWAY—Tuesday, August 27, 1907, in Pueblo, Rollo Hathaway, age 22 years. The remains will be sent this morning by McMahon & Collier to the former home, Danville, Ill., accompanied by his sister and brother.

Funeral Notices.

The funeral of Fred Fisher, who was accidentally shot and killed by George Fox on the Nuckolls cattle ranch east of Pueblo Monday, will be held this afternoon at 2 o'clock from the parlors of McMahon & Collier. Nothing whatever has been heard from his relatives.

The funeral of Joseph Buffalo was held yesterday afternoon at 3 o'clock from McCarthy's parlors and at 3:30 from the Mt. Carmel church.

A Good Fountain Pen

Joseph D. Glass returning from Boulder, where a contract with the Park company for the street State Fair week. This c best known organization in this part of the count well established reputati a high class entertainme pany has appeared recent Springs, Florence, Boulc cities of this and neigh and has received very fi notices from local new Great Bend (Kan.) Item lowing to say:

"Now that the street fa varied attractions has c the people pass judgmer manner of show it was verdict appears to be t clean attractions, courte tlemanly treatment the gation that visited us t ahead of anything of that has visited the to in charge seemed bent o amusements and their direction were heartily our people. No rowdyism with them and there absence of hoodlums wi

Barber's Wi Dying in

Frances Johnson, of street Denver, has wri police department that a colored barber of Bess in Denver and she wante She did not mention name.

Three-Hand Affair

A three-handed al threshed out in police c morning when J. H. appeared on the charge ated a disturbance in a saloon where he is empl ter. The prosecuting Harry Heisler, a bartend and an Italian vegetab seems that Grant and peddler had a little diffe bartender butted in and ter's part. It was show faction of Police Magist the vegetable vender wa the colored man was dis

AIRSHIPS SATISFY DEMANDS OF

By Associated Press.

Berlin, Aug. 27.—The ible balloon and the P are virtually the mast and the officers are h