Funeral Notices.

The funeral of Mrs. Charles M. Burton, nee Hughes, took place from the late residence at Pleasant View at 2 o'clock yesterday afternoon. Services were conducted by the Rev. R. P. Preston, and were very beautiful. A quartet composed of Mrs. R. B. Preston, Mrs. R. L. McCormick, Mrs. T. L. Fisher and Mrs. W. W. Holly, sang the favorite songs of the deceased which were "Lead Kindly Light," "Some Time We Will Understand," and "Nearer, My God, to Thee." The floral tributes were many and beautiful. The path from the front door of the residence to the gate, was strewn with flowers, and the casket was literally covered with the tributes of friends and relatives. The deceased was very well known and popular in this city, having just recently been married, and her untimely death came as a shock to her many friends. A long line of carriages and private conveyances followed the remains to the Mountainview cemetery, where the interment took place. The pallbearers were Austin Ruddy, Lewis Peterson, James Taylor, William Russie, J. B. Coleman and J. A. Jackson. The floral bearers were Mrs. M. E. Coleman and Mrs. A. C. Jackson.

The body of Charles H. Merrill, who died at Beulah, Monday, June 27, 1904, was sent to Matawan, N. J., Thursday, by West Bros. & Whiton.
