Sunk by an Ice-gorge.

By Associated Press.

Cincinnati, O., Dec. 27.—The packet steamboat W. H. Grapevine, was sunk at the public landing here today by an ice gorge, being the second boat sunk by ice within a week. With moving ice ten feet thick, other craft and wharf boats are in danger. The loss of the Grapevine, including cargo, is more than $10,000.

Later thick ice from the gorges struck the sunken Grapevine, broke the packet into pieces and took the wreckage down stream so that it is a total wreck. Nothing can be learned of the hull tonight. The rise in the river in connection with heavy ice from the gorges caused more than $100,000 of other damage in the Cincinnati harbor today. The largest loser was the Cincinnati Gas company. Twenty-five of its barges loaded with coal were broken from
