FUNERAL NOTICES.

The funeral of the late Levi Bledsoe wil lake place Tuesday at 3 p. m. from the undertaking rooms in the Board of Trade building, Rev. R. A. Chase officiating.

The funeral of Michael Flak will take place this morning at 8:30 from the house, 408 River street, and at 9 o'clock from the Greek church. Interment will be in Riverview under the auspices of St. Michael's society.

The funeral of Harry Cannell will take place from the family residence, 822 west Eleventh street, Wednesday afternoon at 2 o'clock. Rev. Fisher, of Vineland, will conduct the services.

The funeral of Ferdinand Smallfield took place at 2 o'clock yesterday afternoon from the undertaking rooms in the McCarthy block, and was largely attended by members of Minnequa, Zuni and Ossowatamie tribes of Red Men. The Pueblo Harmony Singing society sang at the services. Interment, under the auspices of Minnequa tribe No. 17, I. O. R. M., was in Riverview. The pallbearers were Max Schwer, Charles Hermsmeyer, Albert Elgin, Emil Guenther, Carl Jan and William Firestine.

A PRODUCTION FROM LIFE.

"There's nothing new under the sun" is an old maxim that refers to the stage as well as everything else in life.

The stage is supposed to hold a reproduction from life and that is what is seen behind the footlights at every performance of "Too Rich to Marry," the beautiful comedy by Edward Owings Towne.

The author has not overdrawn on his

Bros. nce Sale
uits,
'Coats
s. heaper now than ar.
Knee-its, and 8 to 16.

Cre
OUR FU
Main Telephone
Some of th
YESTERD
E
Ask any of the hu
beautiful an exhibit of th fat commission, but we and compare. Another see pretty novelty pattern
Come in single pieces and
To make t
LOT 1—Embroider
A