FUNERAL NOTICES.

The funeral of Grace Weaver Babbit, wife of Walter Babbit, occurred at the residence in East Pueblo at 10 o'clock Saturday morning. Rev. Monfort in charged. Mrs. Babbitt was 33 years of age and the mother of three sweet children, two and a half, five and eight and a half years old, respectively. After a siege of seven weeks, during which hope alternated with discouragement, death ended a most beautiful Christian life and translated a trusting soul to a better abode.

The funeral of Miss Eva Piper will be held this afternoon at 2 o'clock from her late home 303 Bradford street.

The funeral of John W. Frush, who committed suicide Sunday night, will be held at 9:30 o'clock this morning from McCarthy undertaking rooms.

The funeral of the late Carsten Christensen will be held at 2 o'clock this afternoon from the undertaking rooms of McMahon & Collier.

The remains of Mrs. Guy Thompson reached the city yesterday from Colorado Springs and the funeral was held from Holy Trinity church at 1 o'clock. Rev. Foster conducted the services which were attended by a large following of friends of the deceased.

STUART ROBSON TONIGHT.

This production of the delightful Shakespearean comedy is the most elaborate that ever has been staged and as Mr. Robson has surrounded himself with players of unusual strength and fitness his appearance in this city is to be regarded as one of the leading dramatic events of the season. Mr. Robson long has been the leader of interpreters of classic comedy and since the death of Compton, the English actor, has been without a rival in such parts as the Dromio of Syracuse, Touchstone and Bottom the Weaver. At the Grand tonight.
