Funeral Notices

The funeral of John Schmidt was held yesterday afternoon at 2 o'clock which about 100 miners were killed and many wounded.

The grievances of the men were chiefly concerned with the great mortality in the mines and the refusal of the mine owners to recognize the unions. They were eventually forced to accept the owners' terms.

Sir Lionel Phillips was closely identified with the late Cecil Rhodes and Alfred eBit and he is a partner in the firm of Wenher, Beit & Co. He has lived in Johannesburg since 1889.

In 1896 Sir Lionel was sentenced to death at Pretoria for participation in the Jamestown raid, together with John Hays Hammond, George P. Frank Rhodes. The sentence was later commuted to a fine of $125,000 and banishment.

The assailant of Sir Lionel was later identified as a Dutch storekeeper named Nissum and the crime is supposed to have been actuated by revenge for the loss of a recent suit against the mining group with which Sir Lionel is connected.

Get Names In Early

The Associated Charities state that the names of all parties who should be given attention for Christmas must be in the hands of the secretary not later than the 18th. This rule will be strictly adhered to and there is a reason for unless as late a date as this is set, they will be unable to give the matter careful attention. All those who know the names and addresses of persons who should have some aid at this time are earnestly requested to see that they are in the office of the Associated Charities not later than next Thursday.
