Craddock Funeral This Morning

On account of the funeral of William J. Craddock, which is to take place from the home of his son, No. 8 Carlile Place, at 9:30 o'clock this morning, the offices of the clerks of the county and district court in the courthouse will be closed until noon. Mr. Craddock has been for a number of years bailiff of the civil division of the district court. Prior to coming to Pueblo twenty years ago Mr. Craddock was engaged in the real estate business at Lamar, and pursued the same occupation for ten years in this city. Having lived in Colorado for something over thirty years the deceased was well known throughout the Arkansas valley and was loved and respected by scores of friends.

We wish to extend our sincere thanks to the friends who by their help and sympathy were such a comfort to us in our bereavement in the sickness and death of our beloved husband, father and brother, William Myers.
