were vastly surprised over the improvements being made.

Many Attend Craddock Funeral

The funeral of William J. Craddock was held at 9:30 o'clock yesterday morning from the home of a son, No. 8 Carlile Place. The Rev. Gustave Lehman conducted the services. Mrs. Frank Lewis sang "There Shall Be No Light."

The pall bearers were the sons and a son-in-law of the deceased. The sons were William J. Jr., Erces, Hugh, John and Robert Craddock and the son-in-law was Carrol Rodell.

The flower bearers were Judge C. S. Essex, J. Knox Burton and Fields McMillan.

Many of the courthouse officials were in attendance, the deceased having been for some years bailiff of the district court. Most of the courthouse offices were closed for the funeral. The floral tribute was large and beautiful.

BURNS TO DEATH WHEN GASOLINE CAN EXPLODES