. Charles Mesa Farmers Meet

rmers of the St. Charles mesa, a and extensive farming section east of the city on the Vineland met last night at Wilson's hall e Pleasant View district. After discussion of the question of they decided to investigate the er very thoroughly from a legal ipoint, and to ascertain, if it is ble to obtain relief from taxation h they consider is both unequal excessive.

ns were perfected whereby the ers of this section are in com- cation with practically the entire ing community of Pueblo county.

the drag net was going to be lowered or Dillion would have gotten twice as many of these panders.

"The ones he did get are making gravel out of boulders now and if Dillon can just manage to keep them working all the time they're in Pueblo, they may leave and stay away, which would be about the finest thing they could come to pass for Sunville. They're getting too quick, and after the protection they have been getting they have begun to think that they have more rights here than other people.

THE CLARK MAGNETIC MIN-

for "Toting" G

Fred Norman, colored, has a row ahead of him. Yesterday h arrested and later discharged fo ing to whip a negro employed home of Attorney Thomas Devi Orman and Quincy. That was Mr. Devine arrived home. Wh did and heard all of the details warrant was sworn out. Norma arrested again yesterday by D Sheriff Sam Fabrizio and locked the county jail.

Norman is the only colored gra of the Central high school. He ha similar altercations before and alleged professes to be somethin bad man and a "gun toter."

He went to Mr. Devine's entered the kitchen, and declar was there to fight a colored empl Mr. Devine. Despite the prese Mrs. Devine, he flourished a rev using language not at all parlia ary, and was only ousted after t lice had been summoned. As n appeared against him, he 'talked self clear' on the first arrest. Mr. Devine's attitude is to be tak a criterion it looks as if it will more than 'talk' to pry Mr. N into the free air again.

Regarding the case Mr. Devine "I intend to personally prosecut negro, Fred Norman. He cannot into the kitchen of my residenc start to whip a colored servant th has a 'grudge' against, for some cied wrong, and nearly frighte wife into hysterics by flourishing volver and threatening to shoot one present. My home is sacre for such outrageous actions I wi voke every law to punish the trator."
