of the city.
within a few walk of the l business
the best ho-
can board a right at the ny part of the arrival in a
these things

ton No. 6 is our
r Omaha and Chi-
Denver 4:15 p. m.
train leaves at

our 2:00 p. m. and trains for Kansas
Louis.

ICE: 1039 17th St.
RY, General Agent,
ER, COLO.
ON, Com'l. Agent,
ain St., Pueblo.

of Pueblo county will be the matter under consideration at a meeting of the tax committee of the Business Men's rooms Monday night. The evening will be devoted to the discussion of the tax rate in Pueblo county and as the meeting is merely a preliminary meeting nothing else will be taken up for discussion. Following are the members of the committee: M. H. Fitch, G. J. Dunbaugh, G. G. Withers, T. J. Downen, O. H. P. Baxter, Frank Pryor, Alva Adams, L. E. Eyman and R. F. Lytle.

SOCIAL DANCE TONIGHT

Board of Trade Hall; finest floor in city. Music by Frank Burhorn.

Cut Prices
ON Cut Glass
AT Cornwell's
222 N. Main.

William Dunbar will leave Monday for California where he goes for his health. He is the bailiff of division B of the district court.

Mr. and Mrs. H. F. Sharpless left the city yesterday and will spend a few weeks at the Tarpon club at Arkansas Pass, Texas, and will also go to Corpus Christi, Texas. They will charter a yacht and with some Kansas City friends will take a ten days trip among the islands of the northern gulf.

DIED.

DUCY—Friday, Jan. 22, 1903, at his home on Victoria avenue, Cornelius C. Ducy, aged 29 years.

Remains will be escorted from McMahon & Collier's undertaking rooms at noon today by the local lodge of Eagles, of which the deceased was a member, and sent to Trenton, Ill.

LEWIS—Friday, Jan. 22, 1903, John Lewis, aged 43 years.

Funeral will be held from McMahon & Collier's undertaking rooms at 1:30 Sunday and from the Orman avenue Methodist church at 2 o'clock.

DIJULIA—Friday, January 22, 1903, at the home of her parents, 1248 Northern avenue, Angelina Dijulia, aged 2 years.

Funeral today at 1:30 from McMahon & Collier's undertaking rooms and at 2 o'clock from Mount Carmel church.

AXLEY—Friday, January 22, 1903, twin daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Ax-