Thomas Stephenson, officiating.

DIED.

PERRINE—Wednesday, October 27, 1897, at the family home, 316 west Evans avenue, Jessie L. Perrine, wife of F. Perrine, aged 26 years.

Funeral strictly private from the house today at 10 a. m.

EGAN—Wednesday, October 27, 1897, at the family home on south Santa Fe avenue, Rudolph, 2-year old son of Mr. and Mrs. Michael Egan.

Funeral from the house at 8:45 today.

PUEBLO RIFLE CLUB SHOOT.

Cold Weather Materially Interferes With the Shooting.

Honors were equally divided between J. Schwab and A. Blust at the Pueblo Rifle club shoot yesterday, Mr. Swab winning the 100-yard event and Mr. Blust the 200-yard, both making a combined score of 138 poin s The afternoon was a bad one for shooting. Following are the scores:

100 YARDS.

Schwab, J.	7	7	6	9	8	6	5	9	6	9-72
Blust, A.	8	6	10	5	8	6	5	8	10	4-70
Colvin, A. L.	9	5	5	8	7	3	6	9	9	6-67
Anderson, W. L.	6	9	7	6	7	10	6	3	7	6-67
Rittenhouse, E. T.	4	4	5	10	7	8	8	6	6	6-64
Spencer, C. A.	6	5	6	4	6	4	8	10	9	6-64
Patterson, W. O.	6	6	5	4	8	6	8	10	1	9-63
McDonald, J. E.	8	5	4	4	5	5	6	6	6	8-57

no name nor yours. Call at avenue. Pueblo

NOTIC

I will not be r
contracted by my former part
business.
608

J. O. ZIM
Corner Union
THE FLO
Headquarters
flowers and pl
and decorations
and retail.
Greenhouse, Be Car Line.

DR. S
DE Kretchmer bloc
A FULL SET OF