tive of
t store
on the go last

t for a
it even-

rn Den-
is home
several

assenger
co lines
visited

assenger
Western
was a

Pueblo

DIED.

BARNES—Tuesday, December 10, 1907, in this city, William B. Barnes, aged 26 years. The remains probably will be taken to Hampton, Ark., for interment.

LISTER—Tuesday, Dec. 10, 1907, at the residence at 112 Block P, Miss Elizabeth, daughter of Mrs. Margaret Lister. The remains are at McCarthy's. Funeral announcement later.

FAIRCHILD—Tuesday, December 10, 1907, at the family residence, 521 west Sixth street, Earl Fairchild, aged 26 years. The remains are at McCarthy's undertaking rooms. Funeral announcements later.