Ashley, Mrs. Grout, Mrs. Duckworth and Miss Stella Grout sang "Lead, Kindly Light," "Rock of Ages," and "My Faith Looks Up to Thee." The services were in charge of the Rev. Mr. Pennelton of the Rye Methodist church, There were numerous beautiful floral offerings, emblamatic of the great esteem in which the deceased was held by all who knew him. Interment was in the family lot in Brookside cemetery.

DIED

REYNOLDS—Friday, Nov. 29,1912, Mrs Catherine M. Reynolds, aged 37, at the family residence, 806 west Fourteenth street. She was the wife of E. M. Reynolds, claim agent for the Santa Fe in the local office. Mrs. Reynolds had made hundreds of friends in the city since coming here from Shawnee, Okla., several years ago, and will be mourned by many. She was a member of Mistletoe Grove No. 6, Women of Woodcraft at Shawnee, and of the Knights and Ladies of Security in Pueblo. She is survived by her husband and daughter, Miss May E. Reynolds. The deceased had been ill for the past year and a half. The remains are being cared for by the McCarthy Undertaking company, and the funeral announcements will be made later.

FAIRCHILD—Wednesday, Nov. 27, 1912, at Fairview, Okla., Mrs. Samarimus Fairchild, aged 61 years. She was formerly a resident of Pueblo, where she lived for fifteen years. She is survived by three children, William Fairchild, Mrs. Mary Stapleton and A. Fairchild. Four grandchildren, all of Pueblo, also survive, Clyde, Claude, Edgar and Zora. The remains are at McCarthy's, and the funeral arrangements will be made public later.

TARPAS—Thursday, Nov. 28, 1912. Theodore Tarpas, aged 24 years, at Salida, Colo. The remains are being cared for by the United Undertaking company. The deceased was a former resident of Pueblo, where he was well known. Funeral announcements will be made later.

TOTH—Friday, Nov. 29, 1912. Helen, the infant daughter of Mr. and Mrs. L. Toth, at the family residence, 1414 Spruce street. The remains are being cared for by McCarthy. The funeral will be held this afternoon from the house at 1:30 and from St. Xavier church, where Rev. Father Kowald will preach the funeral sermon. Interment will be in Roselawn.

Treaty to Be Renewed

London, Nov. 29.—The Odessa correspondent of the Post claims to have learned that the Russo-American treaty of commerce will be renewed in amended form on January 1 next, the United States having waived the passport question.