The remains of Mrs. Ann Mahoney will be forwarded at 8:30 o'clock this morning from McCarthy's parlors to Leicester, N. Y., for interment. Mrs. Mahoney and her husband William Mahoney, 79 years of age, were touring the country and, while en route east from San Francisco, stopped at Goodnight to visit their nephew, William Mahoney. Mrs. Mahoney was suddenly stricken with heart trouble and died.

The funeral of Olga Klinz took place from the residence, 500 Moffatt avenue, at 2 o'clock yesterday afternoon, and at 2:30 o'clock from St. Mary church, Rev. Father Cyril Zupan officiating. Interment was at Roselawn.

The remains of Mrs. Flora J. Quiett, who died in this city Sunday, were sent by the West Bros. & Whiton mortuary to Trinidad yesterday morning. Interment was in the family plot at Trinidad yesterday afternoon.

The funeral of Addison J. Fuller will be held at 2 o'clock this afternoon from the family residence, 1217 Claremont avenue, and from the United Presbyterian church, corner of Adams and Broadway, at 2:30 o'clock. The Rev. J. Clyde Mahaffey will conduct the services. The services at the grave will be under the auspices of South Pueblo Lodge No. 31, A. F. & A. M. The deceased was also a member of W. O. W. camp of Bradley, Ill. Interment will be in the family plot at Mountain View cemetery.

The funeral of George A. Smith was held at 2:30 o'clock yesterday afternoon from the chapel of the West Bros. & Whiton mortuary. The Rev. R. R. Adams conducted the services. Interment was in the family plot at Roselawn cemetery.

The remains of Mrs. Flora A. Justice, aged 45, who died in this city yesterday, were sent by the McMahon & Collier mortuary last night to her old home at Fowler, Colo., for interment. They were accompanied by Russell Justice, the son of the deceased gentlewoman.

The funeral of John Carroll will be at 2 o'clock this afternoon from the chapel of the McMahon & Collier mortuary. Interment will be in the family plot at Roselawn cemetery.
