heater

D PLENTY OF LIGHT AND AIR—KITCHEN.

AVOID UNNECESSARY STEPS, THE ND COOKING BECOMES A PLEASURE.

y—Is the Way

s & Fuel Co.

ROOM, 514 N. MAIN ST.

PHONE MAIN 143

GERMAK—George, aged 25, at a local hospital, April 21, 1913. The funeral will be held tomorrow morning at 9:30 o'clock from St. Anthony's church, the Rev. Father Hyacinth officiating. Interment in Roselawn in charge of the United Undertaking company.

IACOVELLA—Infant son of Mr. and Mrs. Vencenzo Iacovella died at the family residence, 428 Beach street yesterday morning. Funeral from McCarthy chapel Wednesday 10:30 a. m. Interment in Roselawn cemetery.

HUGHES—Peter Hughes, age 30 years. Remains are at McCarthy's. He is survived by wife and father, Martin Hughes and sisters, Mrs. Michael Curran and Mrs. C. Bagano of this city and brother, Thomas Hughes, Monte Vista, Colo.; Gertrude Hughes, Smerto, Ill.; Katherine Hughes, Smerto, Ill.; John Hughes, Seattle, Wash.; Michael Hughes, Chicago, Ill.; uncle and aunts Mr. and Mrs. Peter Hughes, Mrs. Patrick Hughes and Mrs. John Curran.

Clay soils need manure much more than sandy soils. The rootlets cannot penetrate the hardpan, and dry out and die from drouth and lack of plant food. Either green or dry manure will loosen up the soil so that all this will be remedied.

CHIEFTAIN WANT ADS. BRING RESULTS. PHONE MAIN 55.

C. Cole
of person
heard be

BAPTI
H. Spenc
Dr. F. B
dress th
the Lak
7:30 this chicken
who dest
word in

CLOCI
in the house ar
not sup
Every o mission
that the
to keep died, an
County
Waterbu
says he electric building

THAN Bulette,
Circle, o
the soci
of the c contribu
the sum
the Tri
daily d
for the