Eight Thousand Tickets Are Sold

When the box office at the Grand opera house opens at 9 o'clock this morning for "Tabasco-Land" there is going to be a great rush for reservations. More than 6,000 tickets had been sold up to 8 o'clock last night, and it is well for the public to understand that no seats will be on sale at the box office, but members will be on hand to dispose of tickets for reservations. No more than six seats can be secured by any one person.

Yesterday afternoon a full dress rehearsal was held at Elks home, and the 105 members of the cast were so delighted with their new and brilliant costumes that it was near 7 o'clock before Director Bobby Burgess could clear the hall. Shifty Sadie and Miss Muffet made grand hits, as did all the other principals. Wednesday everybody in town will be whistling melodies from the big solo and chorus numbers of "Tabasco-Land." Get your tickets early today, for it all goes to the charity fund of the lodge.

Funeral Notices.

One of the most largely attended funerals that has been held in Pueblo took place yesterday when the remains of Louis Offsinger, the pioneer of the city, were taken to their final resting place in Roselawn. The funeral was held from the family home at 208 east Mesa avenue at 9 o'clock and at 10:30 from St. Mary's church. Rev. Father Cyril Zapan celebrated requiem mass and members of the St. Joseph society, Knights and Ladies of Security, the Harugari society attended in large numbers. There were more than 600 men in line in the funeral procession. The pallbearers were John Sneder, Martin Gersic, George Thomas, Matt Grabek, Joseph Culig, Jr., and J. Gorsick. The flower bearers were Frank Haines, Julius Hildebrandt and John Cheplak.

The funeral of J. Piccoli, who died at Kewanee, Ill., will arrive in the city this morning, accompanied by the wife of the deceased, and the funeral will be held from McCarthy's chapel at 2:30 o'clock in the afternoon. Interment will be in Roselawn.

The remains of Manuel Lafferty were sent to Omaha, Neb., yesterday morning by Davis & Vories, accompanied by two sons of the deceased.

The funeral of William F. Mayfield was held yesterday afternoon at 3 o'clock from the West Bros & Whiton chapel. The service were entirely in charge of Silver State Lodge No. 95, A. F. & A. M., who conducted the funeral ceremony of the order at the grave. The pall bearers were: P. H. Burton, T. E. Ormston, J. M. Gile, T. S. Davis, G. F. Clawson and G. Polhill. The interment was in Mt. View cemetery.
