Frank McAliney Critically Ill

Frank McAliney, one of Pueblo's most prominent attorneys is in St. Mary hospital in a critical condition and little hope is entertained for his recovery.

Mr. McAliney's condition is indirectly the result of an attack of the grippe. After being ill for about two weeks, blood poisoning was discovered in his right arm since which time he has gradually grown worse. At an early hour this morning, it was stated that he was very low and that his chances for recovery were slight.
