..... 15.00
rt of ap
... . 63.30
supplies. 25.00
, rebate
..... 10.50
., tickets. 24.00
Co., city
..... 30.80
..... 21.00
FUND.
ric Light
.....$1,815.00
ght and
Eighth
..... 490.00
ad Power
..... 40.00
ATION FUND.
ydrants,
..... 978.00
er works,
..... 1,108.00
ONERY AND FUND.
o., print-
.....$ 93.05
WER FUND.
Co., pipe$ 94.40
EREST FUND.
.....$1,081.08
T INTEREST
.....$2,121.77
NT INTEREST
.....$ 176.58
ND.
ding pris-
.....$ 96.08
FUND.
fountain
. .....$ 481.50
neath av-
.... 1,636.25

king Powder
Made.

the market —

this week cannot fail to interest you, because the goods are new and the prices the lowest ever quoted on seasonable novelties this time of year. When it comes to millinery, nobody can excell Miss Emma Clinkenheard in the artistic trimming of a hat or bonnet. She is an artist in her profession, and department of Mr. Dunning's store department of Mr. Duning's store should do so at once. 409 and 411 Santa Fe avenue.

DIED.

MAJORS—Friday, October 19, 1894, at Cripple Creek, Miss Mattie Majors, aged 17 years.

Funeral from the home of her mother, 1021 East Tenth street, at 3:30 p. m. today.

RANTSCHLER—Saturday, October 20, 1894, at Greeley, of typhoid fever, Anna E. Rantschler.

The remains will arrive here at noon today. Funeral announcement later.

MISS REYNOLDS SPOKE.

Populist Mass Meeting at the Board of Trade Hall.

Miss Minnie J. Reynolds of Denver spoke at populist headquarters to a very fair audience last night. In opening, she discussed at some length the history of the legislation resulting in woman's enfranchisement as seen by her while a committee clerk in the Legislature. She cited the records to prove her claims that it was to the populist party that the women owe their right to vote. In the course of a speech of two hours length she expounded most of the Omaha platform, but more particularly those sections relating to finance, land and transportation. She has a very pleasant delivery, and was attentively listened to throughout. Mrs. H. Page acted as chairman, and seats on the platform were occupied by Mrs. I. D. Chamberlin, Mrs. W. F. Townsend and Mrs. Livingston.

hand, and thi
the past 10 o
lower and less
you will notic
ian writing u
this distinctio
pert's clews in
direction to loc
mous writer.

A woman is
serving her me
this conclusion
is partly due to
cation as well
in accomplishi
takes. She wil
of a piece of
while the ave
trary, gives up
not successful
Thus it is th
their dishonest
kinds they ma
forgers than m
though, regardi
direction is th
tions will be
server's stand
leave much mo
own characteri
in crime.

Experts will
erality of anon
the offenders ve
would be victi
often lead to sa
sults.

A prominent
New York ente Carvalho, the
scurrilous lette
was addressed