1922, in Pueblo, Colo. He was the son of the late Raymond John and Ann Katherine Brown. Wes was a graduate of Pueblo Central High School in 1941 and enlisted in the armed services in 1942. He was assigned to the 385th bomber group flying out of Ipswich, England, on missions over Germany. He flew as a waist gunner on a B-17 Flying Fortress bomber. On March 18, 1944, his plane was shot down and he was held in a German prisoner of war camp until liberated. Returning to Colorado, he married Mary Ellen Francis on July 9, 1945. Wes worked in real estate his entire life, first as an agent and later managing his own properties until his retirement in 2001. Wes is survived by his sons, Leslie F. Brown (Carol) of Kalispell, Mont., and Gerald D. Brown of Imperial, Pa. He also is survived by his daughter, Beverly G. Catalano (Larry) of Cheyenne, Wyo.; as well as six grandchildren and numerous nieces and nephews. Besides his parents and wife, he was preceded in death by his sister, Loraine Kelley. A private memorial service will be held at a later date.

Entombment in the Memorial Home. Family and friends may be received at the home. Courtesy of the funeral home, including both services.
