A Fair Barbarian.....
.....Frances H. Burnett
I, Thou and the Other One
....Amelia E. Barr
American Wives and English Husbands .....
.....Gertrude Atherton
Bonaventure..George W. Cable
Put cross before name of books wanted.

There are no finer novels in the world than these. Each one is a gem, and printed from the original plates. At 25 cents each everybody can afford to read them.

LONG LOST RECORD.

Any information that may lead to the recovery of the early records of "James Rice Hose company, number 1, Pueblo Volunteer Fire department," is much desired by a number of residents charter members of that organization. A suitable reward will be paid for any information of worth. Any one possessing information will please communicate with C. W. Kessler, 118 west Third street.

"THE CONVICT'S DAUGHTERS."

There are few plays the character and plot of which remain contemporaneous with the progress of time, a decided exception in this respect is "The Convict's Daughter" the play in which William De Shettley will be seen at the Grand Opera house next Thursday night, October 3rd. Not only is the vitality of this play as decided as ever, but the unfolding of the plot is as productive of incidents as timely today as during the last season the play was produced. A powerful company will present the play, special scenery, mechanical effects will be used. The whole production being on a lavish scale. Seats on sale Wednesday. Regular prices, 25 cents to $1.

Pueblo Beer is pure.

Pueblo flyer at 12 midnight after the ball is over," etc. Just make it a point to ask for and see that you are furnished with "Rio Grande tickets." We are running more trains and giving better service, much better, than all the other lines combined. Round trip, Pueblo to Denver, $4.65.

Mrs. M. Forsythe took first prize at the State fair for bread made from Silver Dollar Flour. For sale only by the Smythe & Ritter Mercantile company.

DIED.

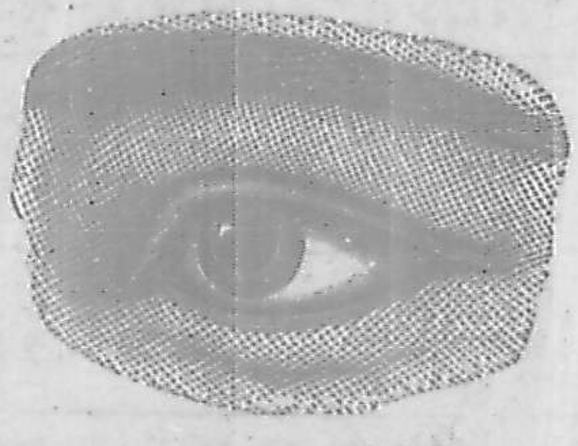

TAYLOR—Sunday, September 30, 1901, at the family residence, 1537 Routt avenue, William P., infant son of Mr. and Mrs. H. F. Taylor.

Funeral from the house today at 10 a. m.

TOO LATE TO CLASSIFY

LOST—A lady's short watch chain, a Rocky mountain topaz, beads joined with gold links, charm and locket attached. Finder please leave at 315 west Ninth street and get reward.

WANTED—A girl for general housework; no washing; 723 Court street.

Careful Work

I take the greatest care to give entire satisfaction in all of my work. I know that your future trade and that of your friends depends upon the serv-

Comfort

Guns

You will

J. M

Phone 85.

.....PUEBLO LA

With Mrs. M

SKIRTS,

As an inducement

Wool Broadcl

for .....

The skirt is

A PERFECT FIT

Buy Your

Before the ru

is just the thi

Chinaware ga

The We

117-11