J. W. Raymond of Poncha Springs, Colo., is visiting friends in Pueblo.

W. M. Miller of Pittsburg, Pa., is in the city.

Mrs. Eva Morris, night chief operator at the telephone exchange, is ill at her home.

William Mack of Huerfano is in the city.

F. D. Goodale of Trinidad was in Pueblo yesterday.

D. E. Farr of Walsenburg is in Pueblo.

H. E. Logan and W. L. Adkinson of Pawnee Rock, Kas., are visiting friends in Pueblo.

S. M. Shattuc, agent for the B. & O. Southwestern, was in Pueblo yesterday.

Philip Weber of Salt Lake City is visiting in Pueblo.

City Clerk J. A. Beeler is spending a few days in Salida.

Funeral Notices.

The remains of Armond F. Tibbetts were yesterday sent from McCarthy's parlors to Fremont, Mich., accompanied by the son.

The funeral of Mrs. India Allen took place yesterday morning at 11 o'clock. The interment was at Riverview. Many friends of the deceased came down from Cripple Creek to attend the funeral.

The funeral of Mrs. Effie Williams Walker will take place this morning at 8:30 from the residence and from St. Ingatius church at 9 o'clock. Interment at Riverview.

The funeral of Robert C. Boyd will take place Saturday at 10 o'clock. Interment is to be at Riverview.

tant Episcopal church in this which he claims to set forth t concerning the origin of the Stanford university of Californ Denys says these facts were k
but three persons, Senator a Stanford and himself.

One morning in 1884, Mr. Den
he was called to the hotel De in Florence, Italy, by a messa
ing that Senator Stanford's
just died and that Mr. and Mr
ford would like to see him.
Stanford said to Mr. Denys: " ter my son died I sank into
and for a time became unco
while I was in this state, my s seemed to be standing just be said, 'Father, I want you to university for the benefit of poo men, so that they can have t
advantages the rich have'; afte
he left me. Now tell me wi think of that, and if you think
to do it."

This question was addressed
Denys, who, with Mrs. Stanfo been listening intently.

Mr. Denys replied: "It seem more important what you thin
that, are you in sympathy w
idea and is it in your power t
it out?"

"Yes," said Mr. Stanford, think it would be a good thing
have no one to leave our mone

DIED

DAVIS—Thursday, March 2,
the family home, 412 west street, Mrs. Maria Davis, wi
E. Davis.
Funeral announcement later.

$50,000 to Loan at 5½% and 6%
Why pay high interest rates? See us at once. No delay.
H. F. SHARPLESS & CO