

WE WILL POSITIVELY PAY YOU THE HIGHEST CASH PRICE FOR YOUR CAR. CLEV. ENGER AUTO CO. PHONE 1633

RUMMAGE SALE

Wednesday, Thursday, Friday. Clothing tools, furniture and Brac. 215 So. Union.

MEETS—The Social Star will meet at 1:30 p. m., today in the Odd Fellows hall at Seventh and Grand. Hostesses for the afternoon will be Mrs. H. H. Wallace and Mrs. Ethel Crowder.

DR. C. N. CALDWELL is resuming his practice at 320 Colorado building. He will open his office Monday.

THREE GI's, returned from the armed services, have organized an orchestra which features the playing of Bill Driscoll, Louis Clementi and Joe Saracina.

FIVE HEAVY DUTY used tires and wheels were stolen from a truck of the Adams-Klein Parts Co. sometime last week while it was parked on the company's lot in the 200 block S. Santa Fe, police were told Monday.

OSCAR MASSEY has plenty of whisky at the Victory Liquor Store, 616 N. Main.

ARLEN BAUSKO, 716 E. Eighth, told police that four pair of pigeons had been stolen Saturday night and again last night.

J. C. TURNER, 423 Polk, reported

the theft of his car Monday from the 300 block Bay State, police said last night.

JOE GALLEGOS, age eight, was reported as missing last night, police said. The child failed to return from school, it was reported.

BURGLARS who gained entrance to Dobin Bros., 119 S. Union, Sunday night or early Monday morning secured an undetermined at 9. Interment Vainana.

THE JONES MORTUARY

Routt at Summit

ANDERSON—Irvine. Funeral services Tuesday 2 p. m. our chapel. The Rev. T. I. Watson officiating. American Legion post 163 will conduct flag folding ceremony at the graveside Mountain View cemetery.

HUNT—Michael Trailer. Funeral service Wednesday 1:30 p. m. our chapel. The Rev. W. H. Mitchell in charge. Interment Mountain View cemetery.

GEORGE F. McCARTHY

FUNERAL HOME

KEENAN—Mrs. Mary C. Funeral our chapel Tuesday 8:30 a. m. Requiem high mass at St. Patrick's church 9 a. m. Interment Mountain View.

DAVIS MORTUARY

Broadway at Evans Ave.

TOMAYO—Mrs. Antonia Haase Tomayo, also known as Mrs. Antonia Tonylo, at 1707 Euclid Ave., Saturday Dec. 1. Mother of Mrs. Erna Covi, Mrs. Rose Mary Sloan, Ray Haase, Mrs. Josephine Berckelafat, all of Pueblo, and Mrs. Francis March, Morley, Colo. Grandmother of 18. Gread grandmother of six. Member of the Lutheran church. Services 10:30 a. m. Wednesday, Davis Mortuary chapel. The Rev. Arthur I. Anderson will officiate. To Mountain View cemetery.

GRANT—Sylvester A. Grant at hospital, Sunday, Dec. 2. Late of 128 E. Midway Ave. Brother of Mrs. A. J. Snipes, Savannah, Ga.

OSCKLE—Ruth, Daughter of

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Osckle of 1831 Spruce. Survived by her parents and four sisters. Announcements later.

Refund After 2 Years

INDIANAPOLIS—(UP)—Herb Elliott of Indianapolis is a confirmed admirer of the OPA's efficiency. He recently received a check for highway, aroused the patrolmen who subdued them in the county. The car is owned by it was reported.

Basket SCORE

University of Iowa
kota University	26.
Carroll	44, White
State Teachers	35.
Wartburg	49, Upper
University of Wisco
(Wis.)	24.
Minnesota	78, S
State	25.
Kansas	45, Cen
State Teachers, War
Utah	43, Idaho So
	26.

"PHOOEY!" "I DON'T BEL"

But Famous C Relieve His Co

Are you getting relief with harsh la read this sincere, un

"For over 60 years I with constipation. When stating, 'ALL-BRAN is tive,' I said, 'Phooey. That was two years ALL-BRAN every day. 84th birthday, and I'm work.'" R. M. Hazelting St., Austin, Minn.

If you suffer from due to lack of bulk a dish of KELLOGG every day and d water. Do this for you aren't comp send the empty Kellogg Company Michigan. You'll money back