McKinley Souvenir Certificates Are Here

The souvenir certificates, which are to go to contributors to the McKinley memorial fund, are now being distributed, and are to be seen in one or more of the department stores of this city. The task of placing so large a number of these mementoes, without a serious expense to the Memorial association, has been solved, in a measure, by the officers of the association through the generosity of the department stores of the country, they having almost without exception volunteered to act as distributing agents. This idea was suggested by the fact that no other single agency would reach so large a proportion of the population in the large centers. The certificate is a beautiful work of art on which is given an excellent reproduction of Mrs. McKinley's favorite likness of her husband, together with a picture of the McKinley home in Canton and of the White house.

The wording below the illustrations is as follows:

"This certifies that .... has contributed to the fund for the erection of the National Memorial at Canton, Ohio, in honor of William McKinley."

The workmanship and artistic effects are of the very highest order, Tiffany & Co., New York, being the designers and manufacturers. The supply in the hands of the stores is a portion of the first edition of the certificates, and is sent here to enable those who have not as yet contributed to do so. Parties who have already identified themselves with the movement will receive souvenirs direct from the office of the association or through local committees.

Adopt Resolutions on Death of Dr. J. H. Turner

At a special meeting of the Pueblo County Medical society held at their regular place of meeting last night, the following resolutions were adopted:

"Whereas, Our beloved and respected member, Dr. J. H. Turner, has had his earthly career suddenly terminated by an assassin's bullet, and a life full of promise and usefulness has been blotted out, be it,

Resolved, That we as a society and individuals extend to his bereaved family and intimate associates our sincere sympathy and condolence, recognizing that in their loss of a son, brother and friend, we also have lost one who had the united respect of the entire medical profession, and that it is our wish and desire to share, in so far as it is possible, at least a portion of the grief which has come to all. Although he had been in our midst but a short period of fourteen months he had given evidences of a life full of promise in his chosen career, his professional attainments were marked, his ability unquestioned, and we can but feel that had Divine Providence seen fit to spare his life, the medical profession would have had another name to add to its brightest role of fame. Be it further.

"Resolved, That out of respect to the memory of the deceased that this society be declared adjourned and stand adjourned until the first regular meeting in April.

"Resolved, That a copy of these resolutions be transmitted to the bereaved family, the same be engrossed upon the minutes of the society and copies be handed to the press of the city of Pueblo for publication. Signed,

W. L. DORLAND,
W. H. M'DONALD,
W. T. H. BAKER.

ROSE COGHLAN AS "THE SECOND MRS. TANQUERAY."

In spite of criticism, condemnation and abuse from purists who bar social problems from stage presentation and objurgate Paula Tanqueray, in spite of her weakness in the maintainance of the chief charm of womanhood, "The Second Mrs. Tanqueray" arouses a sentiment of compassion when portrayed by such an actress as Rose Coghlan. Pinero's play, "The Second Mrs. Tanqueray," interpreted by Miss Coghlan and a clever supporting company, will be presented at the Grand on tomorrow night. That local theatergoers can discern a brilliant play and star is evidenced by the big demand for seats.
