VITAL STATISTICS

Saturday, November 1, 1969

Marriage Licenses

Mary Louise Phillips, 29, of Colorado City, and Edward Roger Lingo, 22, of Rye.

Eleanor Vigil, 19, and Samuel Magana Jr., 25, both of Pueblo.

Valeri Hardin, 18, and Clifford Edward Horn, 18, both of Pueblo.

Sharon Faye Dutton, 18, Pueblo, and Jackie Lynn Miller, 20, Carson, Iowa.

Births

McCoy—Born to Mr. and Mrs. Glen McCoy, 3411 Sheffield, a son, Oct. 31 at St. Mary-Corwin Hospital.

Bayer—Born to Mr. and Mrs. Hermann Bayer, 1602 E. 19th, a son, Oct. 31 at St. Mary-Corwin Hospital.

Rosenthal—Born to Mr. and Mrs. Ross Rosenthal, 26 Douglas, a daughter, Oct. 31 at St. Mary-Corwin Hospital.

Montoya — Born to Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Montoya, 1510 Iroquois, a daughter, Oct. 31 at St. Mary-Corwin Hospital.

Aloniz—Born to Mr. and Mrs. Armando Aloniz, Granada, a daughter, Oct. 30 at Prowers Medical Center.

Acker—Born to Mr. and Mrs. John Acker, Granada, a daugh-

RIVERA
545-4421

Valenzuela—

Richard Valenzuela, late of 311 W. Corona. Rosary recitation 7:30 p.m. Sunday at St. Patrick Church. Requiem Mass 9 a.m. Monday. Interment, Roselawn.

Barela—

Francisquita Barela. Requiem Mass at 9:30 a.m. today at St. Leander Church. Interment, Pueblo Memorial Gardens. Family at 244 Shaw home of a daughter, Mrs Juan Santisteban.

Valhalla
FUNERAL HOME
27TH and ELIZABETH
PUEBLO'S NEWEST

Loveland—

John Loveland. Funeral services will be held at 10:30 a.m. today in Valhalla's Garden Chapel, conducted by the Rev.

HAYNSWORTH FLAP

Interest-Cor Charges No Solons' Rep

By JOHN CHADWICK

WASHINGTON (AP) — A report drafted for the Senate Judiciary Committee members who support the Supreme Court nomination of Clement F. Haynsworth Jr., says that conflict-of-interest charges by opponents have not been substantiated.

The report was prepared by the Justice Department for the 10 pro-Haynsworth senators on the committee. It concedes, as Haynsworth did in testifying before the committee, that his purchase of $16,000 worth of Brunswick Corp. stock before a court decision involving the company was announced was a mistake.

Haynsworth, chief judge of the 4th U.S. Circuit Court of Appeals, said it did not enter his mind when he bought the stock that a decision upholding Brunswick's lien on equipment in a bowling alley had not been issued.

The draft report said that to "regard an inadvertent error such as this as a basis for refus-