Sues For Judgment

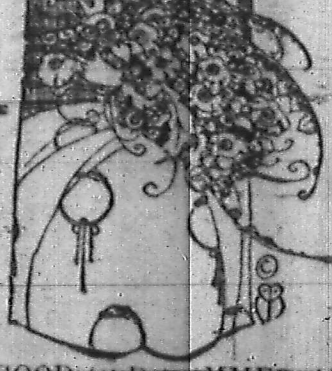

Alleging conditions making up a breach of contract, Carrie M. Zink yesterday filed suit in the district court, praying judgment against Harvey A. Frey for $2,024.

Plaintiff sets forth in the complaint that on November 18, 1919, plaintiff and defendant made a contract in writing wherein plaintiff was to sell to defendant lots 15 and 16, block 124, South Pueblo, otherise kwnown as 930 south Union avenue, and defendant agreed to sell to plaintiff a choice of 95 head of cattle and offspring, on ranch of defendant 15 miles southeast of Pueblo, and furnish team to do hauling of feed, and the use of 100 acres of land for pasturage until March 1, 1920, and to help dehorn the cattle; also to feed 1,000 pounds of hay a day, and plaintiff to pay defendant $8 a day for it.

It is alleged that defendant refused to turn over certain of said cattle, and to conform with certain other provisions of the contract, or to pay for certain articles in the house in question.
