el Espinoza, 70, of Pueb-
. Funeral service, 11 a.m. day, Romero Chapel. In-rment, Imperial Ceme-
ry. Relatives and friends
ill be received at Rome-
's hall following burial.

nce 1922
MONTGOMERY
& STEWARD
Funeral Directors, Inc.
317 North Main • 542-1552
Pueblo, Colorado 81003

dyne Blaess, 91. Crema-
ion, Montgomery & Stew-rd Crematorium. Burial in Boone, Iowa.

lliam C. "Bill" Ethridge.
Service, 2 p.m. today, First United Methodist Church,
lth and Court. In lieu of lowers, memorials to First United Methodist Church
or the Sangre de Cristo Hospice through Montgomery & Steward.

ward T. Jones, 91, passed way April 10, 2007. Survived by his wife, Mary Louise Clark; and her children, Richard (Gail) Clark and (Keith) Donna Palmer; grandchildren and great-grandchildren. Margaret Ann (Bud) Kilton, a niece, ives in Arizona. He was preceded in death by his wife, Delores Jones, in 1984. Edward was born
Dec. 6, 1915, in Cañon City, Colo., to Violet and Edward W. Jones. He served

Eliseo Jose Vigil, 84, Born June 18, 1922, in Colmor, N.M., passed away at his home April 10, 2007, surround by his family. Mr. Vigil served in the U.S. Army Air Corps, during WWII. He retired from the former CF&I Steel Mill, 11-inch mill with over 37 years service. Predeceased by his parents, Florio and Elena Vigil; son, Steve Vigil; brothers, Florio, Bernave, Lewie and Gilbert Vigil; sisters, Martha Tarufelli, Margaret Gauna and Helen Shiner. Survived by his beloved wife, Lucia M. Ortiz Vigil; children, Lillian (Thomas) Lewis, Gerald E. and Michael R. Vigil; three sisters, Melior Vigil, Prudy Medina and Amy (Manuel) Lucero; daughter-in-law, Darlene Vigil; nine grandchildren, four great-grandchildren, other relatives and friends. Visitation, noon to 6 p.m. today, Angelus Chapel. Funeral Mass, 10 a.m. Saturday, St. Francis Xavier Catholic Church. Military honors to follow the Mass by the Pueblo Veterans Ritual Team. Interment, Springer, N.M.

since 1994.

By CHRIS WOODKA
THE PUEBLO CHIEFTAIN

ROCKY FORD — water expert was re Thursday by the River Basin Water F years of work on pr and down the river.

Paul Flack, hydro Colorado State Pa presented the "Bob Friend of the Arkansa at the opening da forum.

"I'm speechless said. "For those of worked with Bob A

Zoo u

The Pueblo Zoo its grand opening lands of Life exhi a.m. Saturday. A Children's Choral mance will follow

Gov. Bill Ritter numerous commu local government for the ribbon ceremony.

On Sunday, the open an hour e a.m.; it will close at 5 p.m.

People with a bership will be ab view the exhibit to 10 a.m. Saturda the exhibit's open