All invited.

COMMITTEE.

---

ahon & Collier, undertakers and ners, Union avenue and D street
one 226. Residence 228.

---

to Denver and return, October
er the popular Colorado & South-4 daily trains. Try the C. & S.
me you go to Denver.

---

st everyone that goes to Colo-prings or Denver travels on the r Colorado & Southern. The pubws a good thing.

Y PLEASE ASK CARRIE

---

e Is Douden Going Nov. 1st."
ur neighbor if His name is Car-

BIG TURKEY DINNER

---

e Busy Bee today. 115 S. Union
.

---

r's ice cream soda is hard to Come in and tell us your trou-

---

us an order for a telephone to-

---

very much nicer
ee Dr. Spicer
re you are forced to by pain.

ED MEN ATTENTION.

---

tribe No. 45, will meet Wednesstead of Monday evening.

W. E. MARTIN, Sachem.
F. E. SCHNUR, C. of R.

"LOST RIVER."

---

h Arthur's big scenic melo-
"Lost River," had a tremen-successful run of six months
York City and proved to be a hrilling and successful play than Jeans," which also dealt with a life. "Lost River" will be at nd next Friday night.

Mitchell Bros.' announcement
r opening and distribution of irs, page 4.

CARD OF THANKS.

---

desire through the columns of aper to express our sincere to our kind friends and neighor their kindness during the s and bereavement of our er and sister, Ethel.

---

graduate of both the Franklin, Ky., and Kirksville, Mo., schools and has given special study to the diseases of women and children. Examinations free. Residence, Wyacondah. Office 'phone black 719.

NEW ARRIVALS IN

Fall Street Hats.

THE FINEST MILLINERY

Mrs. Carrie Rust-Cramer

707 N. MAIN.

BORN.

CHIARIGLIONE—Friday, September 3, to Mr. and Mrs. Hector Chiariglione, 104 north Union avenue, a son.

MARRIED.

O'CONNOR—DRUMMOND—Thursday, September 11, 1902, at St. Patrick's church, Miss Mary O'Connor, of Lenark, Ont., and Daniel Drummond, Rev. Father Weiss, officiating.

DIED

WENNERMARK—Saturday, October 4, 1902, at the family home, 1511 Cedar street, Esther I., 14-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Wennermark.

Funeral from the home this afternoon at 2:30 o'clock, interment in Riverview cemetery. Friends of the family are invited to be present.

JOHNSON—Saturday, October 4, 1902, in this city, John Drake Johnson, aged 79 years.

Remains were shipped to Monantic, Ill., for interment.

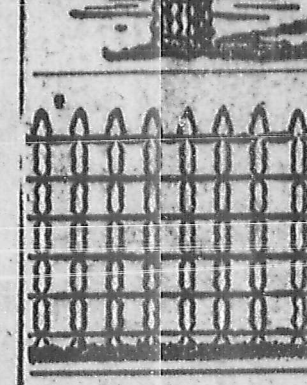

WILSON—Saturday, October 4, 1902, in this city, Mrs. Pearl Wilson, aged 17 years, wife of G. H. Wilson of Waynika, Okla.

Funeral yesterday afternoon at o'clock from the undertaking rooms in the McCarthy block.

CARMICHAEL—Saturday, October 4, 1902, at his home, 22 Block T, Daniel Watson Carmichael, aged 27 years.

Remains were taken to Columbus, O., last night, accompanied by the wife and mother of the deceased. The local chapter of the Auxiliary of the B. of L. E. accompanied the remains to the depot.

TULLY—Saturday, October 4, 1902, Teresa May, 10-year-old daughter of 40% Disc

25% Disc

J. M

Phone 85

We Can Furni

CHEAPEST

Just u

unload

The We