Thomas A. Yourick,

passed away Oct. 9, 2009, at the age of 88. Tom was preceded in death by his parents, Joe and Mary Yourick of Walsenburg; his sister, Christine Yourick (Chesi) of Pueblo; and many good friends and cherished family members. A quick wit, avid bridge player and great conversationalist, Tom enjoyed life to the fullest. Tom graduated from St. Mary's in Walsenburg, and obtained his master's degree in education from Adams State College in Alamosa. He was a veteran of the U.S. Air Force, serving as an encrypter while stationed in Japan during World War II. A retired teacher, Tom brought subjects such as history and music to life for many students throughout his career. Many of Tom's students remember him even now. Tom taught in many schools, and was tenured at his beloved "Big Blue" (Central High School) in Pueblo. Following his retirement in 1981, Tom compiled the material for, and edited, his book, The Magnificent Century, a compilation of 100 years of history of Central High from 1882-1982. Tom appreciated music, and was an accomplished organist. He welcomed playing for churches, the Elks, and volunteered

Happy 1st Birthday in Heaven

No one knows the silent heartaches;
Only those who have loved can tell
The grief we bear in silence
For the one we loved
