2018 ALL PUEBLO READS!

About the project

All Pueblo Reads is a literary project designed to get everyone in Pueblo County reading one book at the same time each year. The goals of the project are to promote literacy and encourage dialogue across cultural, generational and social lines.

This year's selection is The Cold Dish by Craig Johnson and the childrens' companion book is Bad News for Outlaws by Vaunda Micheaux Nelson. More than 300 copies of the books are available for checkout at any of our library locations.

Look below to learn more about The Cold Dish, and turn to page 3 to learn more about Bad News for Outlaws and Vaunda Micheaux Nelson.

About the book

The Cold Dish by Craig Johnson

The body of a young man is found in Absaroka County, Wyoming. It is possible that Cody Pritchard is the victim of a hunting accident, or is he? After all, he was one of the four boys who lured Melissa Real Bird, a Cheyenne girl with Fetal Alcohol Syndrome, into a basement and assaulted her. Cody and his friends received what amounted to suspended sentences. Is someone seeking revenge?

Serving 24 years as sheriff of Absaroka County, located at the base of the Big Horn Mountains and next to the Northern Cheyenne Reservation, Walt is looking for a quiet period to finish out his tenure but instead finds himself embroiled in the most volatile and challenging case of his career. With lifelong friend Henry Standing Bear and his dedicated co-workers, Walt is determined to see that revenge, a dish best served cold, is never served at all.

District is the best in the state!

Pueblo City-County Library District is Colorado's 2018 Library of the Year. The Colorado Association of Libraries (CAL) gave the award during their annual conference in Loveland.

"It has been a remarkable year for Pueblo City-County Library District. It is a great honor to be recognized as the Colorado Library of the Year by the Colorado Association of Libraries. Public libraries truly reflect the communities we serve," said Executive Director Jon Walker.

Annually, the honor is bestowed on a Colorado library for exceptional accomplishments achieved during the year. In 2018, PCCLD won the ELGL Leslie B. Knope award for America's Best Public Library as well as the National Medal for Museum and Library Service from the Institute of Museum and Library Services.

"The success of Pueblo City-County Library District correlates to the engagement of the members of our community. Importantly, I consider it an award also for the library employees, whose dedication and effort is inspirational," continued Walker.

Starting in December, changes are coming to the online catalogue and the library website. Look for more information in November's newsletter.

Companion book for young readers

Bad News for Outlaws by Vaunda Micheaux Nelson

Sitting tall in the saddle, with a wide-brimmed black hat and twin Colt pistols on his belt, Bass Reeves seemed bigger than life. As a U.S. Marshal — and former slave who escaped to freedom in the Indian Territories — Bass was cunning and fearless. For three decades, Bass was the most feared and respected lawman in the territories. He made more than 3,000 arrests and was a crack shot and a quick draw. Bad News for Outlaws reveals the story of a remarkable African American hero of the Old West.

Vaunda Micheaux Nelson is the author of several fiction and non-fiction books for children, including Almost to Freedom, which received a 2004 Coretta Scott King Illustrator Honor Award.

Teachers! On October 17 and 18, Vaunda Micheaux Nelson, author of Bad News for Outlaws, will visit the library! Bus scholarships are available for those who need them.

To register click on this link, <http://www.pueblolibrary.org/allpuebloreads>. All sessions will take place at Rawlings Library, Ryals Room-4th floor, 100 E. Abriendo Ave. Contact Maria Kramer at (719) 562-5618 for more information.

A limited amount of free copies of the companion book are available for teachers to request. To get free classroom copies, go to pueblolibrary.org/APR_Youth and fill out the form.

Between Two Worlds: Buckskin Charley, Sherman Coolidge and the Struggle for a New American Indian Identity

Monday, Oct. 22, 6:30 p.m., RA, Ryals Room-4th floor

Subjugated, dispossessed, and reeling from decades of war, the twentieth century presented American Indians with unprecedented pressures threatening to erase their very existence. The lives of two remarkable native leaders briefly intersected during this pivotal time of transition. Buckskin Charley, famed Ute Chief and Rev. Sherman Coolidge, Arapaho and Episcopalian priest, tackled the challenges facing their people with radically different methods. Their lives reveal the efforts of American Indians to resist and redefine an authentic identity for a new century.

Special events you don't want to miss! All are free and open to the public unless otherwise noted.

The Stories of Cesar Chavez

Wednesday, Oct. 10, 7 p.m., RA, Ryals Room-4th floor

To commemorate Hispanic Heritage Month, acclaimed Los Angeles-based actor and scholar Fred Blanco's dramatic portrayal depicts the life and times of César Chávez, one of the most inspirational and influential civil rights leaders of our time.

Join Chávez in one of the most difficult moments of his life — his first hunger strike in 1968 — and follow him on a spiritual journey through his humble childhood to his days as a courageous labor leader.

Fred Blanco

Great Compassion Mandala Tour

October 13, 15, 16, 10 a.m.-1 p.m. & 2-5 p.m., RA, 2nd floor

Sunday, Oct. 14, 1-5 p.m., RA, 2nd floor

Tibetan Buddhist monks with the Ngari Institute for Buddhist Dialectics, located in far northern India, will be creating a Tara sand mandala and performing sacred music. A sand mandala is a diagram of a celestial palace where a Buddhist deity lives, and it is formed through the intricate layering of dyed sand grains over several days. The purpose of creating the mandala is to help humans generate compassion and understand the impermanence of all things. Geshe Tsewang Dorje, Ngari Institute's director, will explain the work and the meaning of the mandala.

Opening Ceremony

Saturday, Oct. 13, 3 p.m., RA, 2nd floor

Witness the sacred Himalayan Buddhist arts of sand mandala creation, designed with the intention to clear away negativity and generate compassion for all living things.

Closing Ceremony

Tuesday, Oct. 16, 4 p.m., RA, 2nd floor

Witness the dissolution of the sand mandala that symbolizes impermanence. The lamas will share a message of hope and healing before sharing some of the sand and releasing rest into the Arkansas River by the Union Avenue Bridge.

Secrets Into the Wind: The Women of Boggsville

Saturday, Oct. 13, 11 a.m. -1 p.m., RA, InfoZone Theater-4th floor

An original historical drama about Amache Ochinee Prowers, Josefa Jaramillo Carson, Rumalda Luna Boggs, and Mary Prowers Hugh. This play depicts the founding and settlement of Boggsville in the mid 1860s that was made possible by land grants passed on to Prowers, Jaramillo and Boggs.

The performers of The Women of Boggsville.

Lost Lodges of Rocky

Thursday, Oct. 11, 7 p.m., RA, Ryals Room-4th floor

Did you know there were more than 30 lodges in Rocky Mountain National Park? Can you envision large resorts where elk and moose graze in pristine meadows today? Lost Lodges of Rocky explores the transitions in lodging for visitors to Rocky Mountain National Park, in an entertaining one hour program. Share the thought-provoking search for balance between wilderness and hospitality unique to America's first automobile based National Park.

Pecha Kucha Vol. 24

Friday, Oct. 12, 7 p.m., RA, InfoZone Theater-4th floor

Experience the art of a simple presentation format where presenters show 20 slides, for 20 seconds. This night is an informal and fun gathering where creative people get together and share their ideas, works, thoughts, vacation snaps — just about anything really. Complimentary appetizers and drinks provided. Doors open at 6:30 p.m.

Who was that Sculptor in Buckskin?

Wednesday, Oct. 24, 7 p.m., RA, Ryals Room-4th floor

Alexander Phimister Proctor was deeply revered as both America's premier animal sculptor and an unfailingly warm and enthusiastic human being. He spent much of his youth hunting and sketching in the Colorado mountains of the 1870s. His talents took him throughout the U.S. and on to Paris and Rome. He was a devoted husband, loving father and grandfather, incurable wanderer, and confidant of many prominent figures of his day.
