A Universe of Stories: Talks from CSU-Pueblo Astronomy Professors

Big Bang Theory

Wednesday, July 17, 7 p.m., RA,

Ryals Room-4th floor

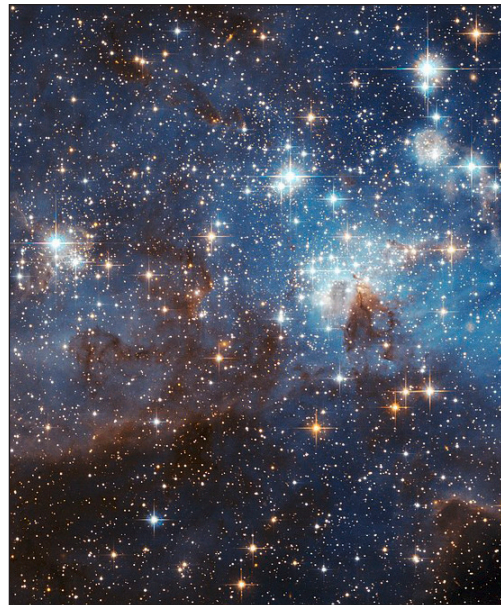

In Big Bang cosmology the Universe is born in a state of extremely high temperature and density and has been cooling and expanding ever since. This makes for a nice story, but what evidence do we have for this theory? Explore several lines of evidence that are conclusively in favor of the Big Bang and dispel some common misconceptions about the theory led by CSU-Pueblo Astronomy Professor Dr. Travis Hurst.

All You Should Know About Asteroids

Wednesday, July 24, 7 p.m., RA,

Ryals Room-4th floor

Learn how asteroids are ancient remnants of our beginning and possibly the source of our end from CSU-Pueblo Professor Dr. William Brown.

Celebrate NASA's 50th Anniversary of Apollo 11's Moon Landing

Monday, July 15, 10 a.m.-2 p.m., RA, InfoZone Theater-4th floor

Brought to you by the American Museum of Natural History, this live webcast will feature a guided recreation of the Apollo 11 voyage — the space-flight that landed the first two astronauts on the Moon.

How Handwriting Helped Build Our Nation

Thursday, July 18, 6:30-8:30 p.m., RA, InfoZone Theater-4th floor

As part of the Revisiting the Founding Era Series, join Karol Harding as she discusses the importance of handwriting during the time of our founding. Cosponsored by the Arkansas Valley Chapter of the Daughters of the American Revolution.

This program is part of Revisiting the Founding Era, a three-year national initiative of the Gilder Lehrman Institute of American History presented in partnership with the American Library Association and the National Constitution Center, with generous support from the National Endowment for the Humanities.

What's new

Explore more of the outdoors at Greenhorn Valley

Greenhorn Valley can help you and your family enjoy more of the great outdoors this summer. Starting in July, PCCLD card holders can checkout fun, hands-on gear from the Outdoor Collection. Items include: binoculars, metal detector with case, hiking poles, badminton set, kids fishing rod and reel combos and tackle boxes.

Items are available for checkout only at Greenhorn Valley Library, 4801 Cibola Drive, Colorado City.

Watch what you want, when you want

The on-demand film streaming service Kanopy is now available at Pueblo City-County Library District.

Library card holders can start streaming films for free by visiting www.pueblolibrary.org/digitalmedia or by downloading the Kanopy app for iOS, Android, AppleTV, Chromecast or Roku. PCCLD card holders can view up to 10 films each month with a three day checkout limit, streaming them from any computer, television or mobile device.

With the motto of "thoughtful entertainment," Kanopy provides PCCLD patrons with access to films of unique social and cultural value; films that are often difficult or impossible to access elsewhere, and programming that features diversity, with a wide array of foreign language films and films on race and current affairs.

Phone notifications now available

Receive phone call notifications for hold and item due. Patrons can now update messaging preferences through their online account or by visiting or calling any branch.
