Celebrating the Year of La Chicana

Year of La Chicana film festival honors the past, present and future by sharing stories of Chicana activism through film. A series of special screenings will connect the core issues of the Chicano movement with present day issues of social justice, identity and inclusion.

This event is in partnership with El Pueblo History Museum.

LA CHICANA FILM FESTIVAL LINEUP

All films will be screened at RA, InfoZone Theater-4th floor

FRIDAY, JAN. 24

6:30 p.m. - La Chicana (NR) by Sylvia Morales

This film traces the history of Chicana and Mexican women from pre-Columbian times to the present. It covers women's role in Aztec society, their participation in the 1810 struggle for Mexican independence, their involvement in the U.S. labor strikes in 1872, their contributions to the 1910 Mexican revolution and their leadership in contemporary civil rights causes. Using murals, engravings and historical footage, La Chicana shows how women, despite their poverty, have become an active and vocal part of the political and work life in both Mexico and the U.S. The event will also include opportunities to engage with the film through a community conversation.

SATURDAY, JAN. 25

10 a.m. - Dolores (NR) by Peter Bratt

In the 1950s, a working-class wife and mother of eleven children helps to establish a farmer's union, which later develops into a platform for feminism and gender equality.

Noon - Spotlight on Shorts

Join us for a series of short films that highlight the spectrum of identities and experiences of La Chicana

2 p.m. - Dora the Explorer and the Lost City of Gold (PG) by James Bobin

Dora, a teenage explorer, leads her friends on an adventure to save her parents and solve the mystery behind a lost city of gold.

4 p.m. - La Misma Luna/Under the Same Moon (PG-13) by Patricia Riggen

A young Mexican boy illegally travels to the U.S. to find his mother (who is illegally in the U.S.) after his grandmother passes away.

Happy New Year!

Jon Walker

by Jon Walker

Pueblo City-County Library District (PCCLD) is planning a robust year in 2020. The recent positive outcome in November on election ballot measure 6B ensures our libraries will remain vibrant with numerous programs and services in support of lifelong learning, free and open access to information, and literacy and reading for all. We also are commencing a few new projects for immediate and long-term continuous improvement to library service.

Starting right away are two initiatives of interest. First, PCCLD will increase its investment in more new books on the shelves for readers. Our collection development librarians will increase spending on new books in 2020 by almost $185,000 over 2019. This means more books on the shelves of our libraries for you and others to peruse, checkout and read. Second, 2020 will mark the beginning of a ten year plan to refurbish our libraries on a rotating basis to make certain each remains up-to-date, fresh, and inviting for you and all other library visitors. A document outlining the library building refreshes is available online at <https://www.pueblolibrary.org/sites/default/files/pdf/PCCLDLibraryFacilitiesMasterVisionPlans.pdf>.

PCCLD will continue to provide Pueblo County residents programs in support of lifelong learning.

We have a great public library system in Pueblo County. The future is bright, too, and this kicks off in 2020 with the initiatives described here and more. You can see the full range of PCCLD activities for the new year on PCCLD's website at <https://www.pueblolibrary.org/sites/default/files/pdf/2020AnnualPlanandBudgetFINAL.pdf>.

Outstanding Women Awards luncheon

Friday, March 13, Noon – 1 p.m., RA-2nd floor
Nominations are due by Friday, Feb. 7.
Nomination forms are available at pueblolibrary.org/outstandingwomen.

Pueblo City-County Library District is accepting nominations for the 2020 Outstanding Women Awards. These awards honor women who have made important contributions to our community and celebrate the important role that women play in Pueblo's history. These awards provide an opportunity for any individual or organization to honor a special woman who makes an impact. The only criteria is that the woman must be a resident of Pueblo County currently or during the time the award honors. The person does not have to be living to be honored.

For more information visit pueblolibrary.org/outstandingwomen or contact Sara Schwartz at sara.schwartz@pueblolibrary.org or (719) 553-0220.
