Flavor

All Pueblo Reads is a literary program designed to get everyone in Pueblo County reading and discussing one book at the same time each year. The goals of the project are to promote literacy and encourage community dialog across social, cultural and generational lines.

Chef and author Yotam Ottolenghi is the featured author for All Pueblo Reads

Pueblo City-County Library District's annual All Pueblo Reads features internationally-renowned chef and bestselling author Yotam Ottolenghi. Co-author of 10 internationally-best-selling cookbooks, Flavor is the centerpiece of this year's county-wide literacy project. Flavor is a 100-plus recipe cookbook that serves up plant-based dishes as the star of full-course meals. The district's annual Booklovers Ball takes on a relaxed air with 2021's virtual Booklovers Brunch. Mindful of public health guidelines, this year's district fundraiser is again virtual and will be held at 11 a.m. on Saturday, Nov. 6. Attendees can cook brunch along with the award-winning chef and have exclusive access to ask questions during the Q&A portion of the event. Virtual passes and viewing kits are available for purchase at www.pueblolibrary.org/booklovers-brunch. Each viewing kit contains: a Virtual Event Pass, a copy of Flavor, signed by Yotam Ottolenghi, ingredients for Saturday's brunch, a mimosa kit and a choice of gourmet dessert.

A virtual public conversation with Ottolenghi will take place at noon

Virtual Booklovers Brunch
