The Friends of the Library honored (from left) Jim Stuart, David Wagner and Mark Clark at their annual dinner on June 30. Wagner was named Friend of the Year. Stuart and Clark were honored for their years of service to the Friends of the Library.

Friends of the Library annual dinner

The Friends of the Library held their annual dinner on June 30 at the Pueblo Country Club. David Wagner received the Friend of the Year honor. Wagner has served on the Friends of the Library Board since 2016 and has served as secretary for the past three years.

Mark Clark, Ph.D. and Jim Stuart were honored for their years of service to the Friends of the Library and it's all-volunteer run bookstore, Books Again.

Clark volunteered at Books Again Bookstore starting in 2011.

His main duty was supervising the bookstore's major annual sales. His dedication to customer service as well as preparing the inventory for sale, contributed to more than $83,000 in gross sales.

Stuart has volunteered at Books Again for 16½ years, serving as the store's manager. Before Books Again, Jim was tasked by Bud Benz to help draft a business plan for its creation. Stuart served on the Friends of the Library board, the Library Board of Trustees, and the Pueblo Library Foundation board.

YOUR FUTURE LIBRARY

FIRST FLOOR UPDATE

The new cafe lounge features an open, airy space to enjoy a quiet place to read and relax. Prior to renovations, this was the home of Youth Services.

Shown is the new home of the InfoZone museum. The exhibit has gone through a major overhaul and installation will begin in August. This space was the former home of the storytime space in Youth Services.

SECOND FLOOR UPDATE

In mid-July the Second Floor of Rawlings Library reopened to the public. The Second Floor now houses adult fiction and nonfiction, music, movies, public computers and is now home to Youth Services. Four new study rooms were added as well.
