CHILDREN'S SELECTION

My Superpower series by Alicia Ortego

OCTOBER 1 - NOVEMBER 5

All Pueblo Reads is a literary project designed to get everyone in Pueblo County reading and discussing one book at the same time. The goal of the project is to promote dialogue across cultural, generational and socioeconomic lines.

NEA Big Read is a program of the National Endowment for the Arts in partnership with Arts Midwest.

Scan this code using your mobile device and QR scanner app to access our interactive program guide!

Three great authors, one outstanding All Pueblo Reads

According to the World Health Organization, mental wellness is defined as "a state of well-being in which the individual realizes his or her own abilities, can cope with the normal stresses of life, can work productively and fruitfully, and is able to make a contribution to his or her community."

Mental wellness is as important now as ever, which is why the 2022 NEA Big Read All Pueblo Reads is built upon giving readers an outlet to cope with life's ups and downs.

This year's literacy project features three distinct authors: Kristin Hannah, author of this year's selected book The Four Winds; NEA sponsored poet Ross Gay, author of Catalog of Unabashed Gratitude; and children's author Alicia Ortego, featuring her series My Superpower.

The NEA Big Read All Pueblo Reads project provides classroom sets of books by authors Ross Gay and Alicia Ortego to students in Pueblo schools, hosts six weeks of free activities at all eight library branches and brings bestselling author
