Suffrage: Books for Children and Young Adults

These are suffrage/women's history books I recommend for young people. Detailed descriptions and cover photos are provided. I would be happy to lend my copies for preview or short term use (about a week).

Kathy DeHerrera
chance2052@msn.com or call 719-564-1013 (leave message)

Contents

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>The FIGHT for SUFFRAGE</th>
<th>page</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Around America To Win the Vote: Two Suffragists, a Kitten, and 10,000 Miles</td>
<td>3</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Blast Back! Women’s Suffrage</td>
<td>4</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Created Equal: Women Campaign for the Right to Vote 1840-1920</td>
<td>5</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>If You Lived When Women Won Their Rights</td>
<td>6</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Marching with Aunt Susan</td>
<td>7</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Miss Paul and the President</td>
<td>8</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Rightfully Ours: How Women Won the Vote</td>
<td>9</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>You Wouldn't Want to Be a Suffragist!</td>
<td>10</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>SUFFRAGIST BIOGRAPHIES</th>
<th></th>
</tr> </thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Elizabeth Leads the Way</td>
<td>11</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Ida B. Wells: Let the Truth Be Told</td>
<td>12</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Sojourner Truth</td>
<td>13</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>You Want Women to Vote, Lizzie Stanton?</td>
<td>13</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>You Forgot Your Skirt, Amelia Bloomer!</td>
<td>14</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Susan B. Anthony – 5 books</td>
<td>15</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>HOORAY for GIRLS and WOMEN</th>
<th></th>
</tr> </thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>A is for Abigail: An Almanac of Amazing American Women</td>
<td>16</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Girls Think of Everything: Stories of Ingenious Inventions by Women</td>
<td>16</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Hidden Figures: The True Story of Four Black Women and the Space Race</td>
<td>16</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>She Persisted: 13 American Women Who Changed the World</td>
<td>16</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>She Persisted Around the World: 13 Women Who Changed History</td>
<td>17</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Watch Out for Clever Women! Cuidado Con las Mujeres Astutas!</td>
<td>17</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Women of the West</td>
<td>17</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

INDIVIDUAL STORIES
Anne Hutchinson  17
Mrs. Lincoln’s Dressmaker  18
Nellie Bly  18
Sacagawea  18
Story of Ruby Bridges  18
Susan Anderson (Doc Susie)  19

GREAT for GIRLS

I Am Enough  19
Princesses Wear Pants  19
Around America To Win the Vote

Two Suffragists, a Kitten, and 10,000 Miles

by Mara Rockliff, illustrated by Hadley Hooper, 2016, Candlewick Press

level:  read-aloud and discuss - 2nd-5th grade independent reading - 3rd-6th grade

read-aloud time: about 7 minutes

34 picture book pages  (simple drawings, minimal text)
+ 4 pages of text on driving in 1916, suffrage history, and sources

summary:
--tells of two suffragists who drive a car in a big loop around America
--shows only positive responses to their “Votes for Women!” cry
--names about 20 cities and states, shows a map of their route
--shows problems with poor roads, weather
--doesn’t explain the significance of yellow car, cake, etc. until next to last page of end materials (It was a suffrage color, along with white and purple.)

vocabulary to pre-teach:
  cause (as a noun)
  postcard blizzard signatures useful smuggled daffodil souvenirs goldenrod Tribune (a newspaper)

questions:

1. What made this trip hard?
   (roads, weather, many miles)
2. What cause did they believe in?
   (women’s right to vote)
3. What did they accomplish?
   (making people aware)

4. What things were yellow? Why?
   (car, cat’s bow, clothes, lunch, hats, cake, signs—symbol of suffrage)

5. What other ways do we use to show what we believe in?
   (team colors, holidays, etc.)

6. Suffragists use the word “persist” meaning to keep trying no matter what. Did Nell and Alice persist? How?
   (finished a long trip in spite of set-backs, having to change to a train, being lost; Alice going again)
Blast Back! Women's Suffrage

by Nancy Olin, illustrated by Roger Simo, 2018, Little Bee Books level: 5th-8th grade independent

112 pages illustrated with black/white line drawings on almost every page
Table of contents, bibliography

Summary:
- focuses almost entirely on suffrage, in the U.S. and Britain
- major events in suffrage history
- short profiles of women and men suffragists, sometimes mixing the two countries
- map of eleven western U.S. states where women could vote by 1915
- twelve pages at the end on suffrage around the world and in modern day
- p.43 shows an apparently nude woman from the back, in a picture frame ???

Questions:

How are the words “suffrage” and “franchise” related?
(Both mean essentially the same—the right to vote.)

How did The British suffragettes differ in their tactics from most American suffragists?
(By 1908 the British were using more confrontational means, such as vandalism and violence. They stopped protests when WWI started, while U.S. women didn’t. -- p. 43, 45, 74, 75)

How did men support suffrage in the U.S.?
(helped women with conventions and endorsements, joined their organizations or started their own, voted in favor)

Which countries were the first to adopt women’s suffrage?
(p. 88-91. Note: Colorado women won full suffrage in 1893, the same year as the first country, New Zealand.)
Created Equal:
Women Campaign for the Right to Vote 1840-1920

by Ann Rossi
National Geographic, 2005

level: 5th-adult

40 pages, illustrations and quotations, + contents, glossary, and index books to read, places to visit

summary:
-- Victorian “true womanhood,”
-- temperance and abolition,
-- Seneca Falls Convention,
-- Elizabeth Stanton teams with Susan B. Anthony, and why, + short bios,
-- Lucy Stone bio and her unique marriage,
-- Civil War work, 14th and 15th Amendments,
-- suffragists split and reunite, Carrie C. Catt bio,
-- anti-suffragists’ efforts,
-- Alice Paul’s activities,
-- Edna Purtell, a young clerk, marches in a suffrage parade,
-- ratifying the 19th Amendment, Tennessee’s War of the Roses,
-- cartoons,
-- immediate voting in 1920, short and long term impacts exciting resource on the national suffrage movement, concise but not over-simplified, gives reasons as well as events, quotations are excellent

If You Lived When Women Won Their Rights

by Anne Kamma, illustrated by Pamela Johnson, 2006, Scholastic level:  read-aloud and discuss – 4th-6th grade independent reading – 4th-7th grade great introduction to suffrage for 8th grade to adult read-aloud time: 30 minutes, best in segments mixed with activities

64 pages illustrated by color drawings and a few small photos 48 sections, each answering the question that is its title

summary:
--begins with a brief view of women’s rights, starting in colonial times,
--concentrates on 1848 (convention)-1920 (voting), see timeline on p. 7
--mentions many women in history, profiles on seven suffragists
--highlights challenges and hardships faced by women, esp. suffragists
--includes sections on women in the West, focusing on Wyoming
--includes how girls and women dressed, and how that impacted daily living

questions:
   Use any in the Table of Contents.

   Discuss how the suffrage movement grew and how suffragists demonstrated persistence.

   What customs did women change on their way to getting the vote?
   (women not speaking in public, not staying at home, not being controlled by husbands, etc.)

   Imagine what Charlotte Woodward, the young glove-maker from the first convention, would have felt or said about voting for the first time in 1920.
Marching with Aunt Susan Susan B. Anthony and the Fight for Women’s Suffrage

by Claire Rudolf Murphy illustrated by Stacey Schuett

level: read-aloud and discuss – 2nd-5th grade
Independent reading – 2nd-5th grade

read aloud time: about 8.5 minutes

28 picture book pages (richly illustrated)
+ 5 pages on the real Bessie, California and U. S. suffrage history, Susan’s bio, timeline, and further resources; suffrage scrapbook items on inside covers vocabulary: strenuous, rally, suffrage vs. suffering, headquarters, factory, zeal, election, campaign, referendum history which may need explaining: child labor, licking envelopes

summary:
--begins with Bessie, a real girl, being discriminated against as a girl
--Bessie’s Aunt Mary brings Susan B. Anthony to tea
--Bessie learns about the suffrage cause, visits factory girls, marches in a parade
--the 1895 California suffrage effort fails, but Bessie makes progress

questions:
1. Why did Bessie feel like women needed the vote? unfair treatment as a girl, factory girls’ lives
2. What did the women do to try to win the vote? unite, invite Susan, rally, posters, march, letters, give money
3. Who disagreed with them, and how? Bessie’s brothers, male hecklers, egg-thrower, Rita’s Dad removing her
4. How did Susan, Mama, and Bessie deal with disappointment? persistence, moving on Miss Paul and the President

The Creative Campaign for Women's Right to Vote

by Dean Robbins illustrated by Nancy Zhang

level: read-aloud and discuss – 2nd - 4th grade
Independent reading – 2nd - 5th grade

read aloud time: about 8.5 minutes
(without explanations or discussion)

34 picture book pages (richly illustrated)
including one page for author’s note and bibliography vocabulary: jeer, hullabaloo, unfurl a scroll, strode, Constitution, Washington, D.C., gawk, caboose, mischief

a simplified and sanitized version of Alice Paul’s efforts to force President Woodrow Wilson to endorse women’s suffrage, and his reactions to her

summary:
--describes the suffrage parade which overshadowed Wilson’s arrival in D.C.
--Alice’s childhood mischief and the development of her interest in suffrage
--Alice’s meeting with Wilson, her tactics to change his mind
--the emerging support from Wilson’s daughter Margaret
--Alice’s arrest (as she wanted) and Wilson’s turn-around

questions:

1. What made Alice realize that women should vote?
   unfair treatment of her mother, reading books

2. What did Alice and the other women do to try to win the vote?
   parade, ask the President, form a group, make signs, send a train across the country where they gave speeches, march outside the White House, go to jail

3. How do you think Margaret felt, and why?
   concerned for her father, interested in the letters, for suffrage Rightfully Ours: How Women Won the Vote

by Kerrie Logan Hollihan
Chicago Review Press, 2012

level: 6th-adult

130 pages, generous black/white illustrations, + contents, timeline, preface, index, and 21 related activities for kids or adults, books to read, places to visit

summary:
--profiles of Lucy Stone, Elizabeth Cady Stanton, Susan B. Anthony, shorter ones of Harriet Tubman, Sojourner Truth, Harriet Beecher Stowe
--good background on societal changes and problems of each era
--postponing suffrage work for the Civil War, efforts of Clara Barton, other women
--the amendment process and how suffragist were left out of the 14th and 15th
--suffrage group splits over tactics & beliefs about the Negro vote; start newspapers
--Victoria Woodhull runs for President; Wyoming - first woman voters, judge, Gov.
--industrial era, temperance & Frances Willard, clubs, Mary Church Terrell
--20th cent., Jane Addams, Matilda Gage, Carrie C. Catt, Harriet Stanton Blatch, labor becomes active - Rose Schneiderman
--British influence, Alice Paul, Lucy Burns, Ida B. Wells, more assertive tactics and harsher responses, WWI, Jeannette Rankin, jail/abuse, Louise Havemeyer
--1920: amendment passed on Congress, states ratify with TN the 36th, voting, 1923-Alice Paul writes the Equal Right Amendment comprehensive, readable, with excellent use of primary sources for narrative, illustrations, and activities

You Wouldn’t Want to Be a Suffragist!
A Protest Movement That’s Rougher Than You Expected

by Fiona Macdonald, illustrated by David Antram, 2008, Scholastic level: independent reading - 3rd-8th grade recommended for read-aloud only in very small groups; lots of print and some pictures are small

32 picture book pages (colorful drawings) helpful hints on how to be a suffragist + glossary, index

summary:
In 1920 a young American women is visited by her British great aunt Edith, who tells her about the struggle in England, while cousin Mabel talks about the U.S. --Brit Mary Wollstonecraft and her 1792 book on women’s rights --the 1848 convention in Seneca Falls, NY, and many early suffragists --Susan B. Anthony and Elizabeth Cady Stanton disrupted US Centennial events --suffrage efforts, tactics and symbols --the Pankhursts radicalizing the movement in Britain, imprisonment, hunger strikes and force-feeding --progress in the Western US; parades in the East, WWI -- victory in Britain (1918) and US (1920) and almost world-wide vocabulary: see glossary on p. 30

questions:

1. How was the British suffrage movement different from the American one? (more violent toward people and Property, victory 2 years earlier)

2. In what ways was being a suffragist hard? (tough travel, hard work, jail, abuse)

3. What actions did women use to fight for the vote? (formed clubs, petitioned, marched, picketed, resisted, etc.)

4. Would you have wanted to be a Suffragist? (Both females and males were.)
SUFFRAGIST BIOGRAPHIES

Elizabeth Leads the Way
Elizabeth Cady Stanton and the Right to Vote

level: read-aloud and discuss - 2nd-5th grade
independent reading - 3rd-6th grade

read-aloud time: about 8 minutes

36 picture book pages (colorful drawings)
+ one page Author’s Note and Sources lists

summary:
--Seneca Falls Conference, 1848, first group demand for the vote, simplified
--tells how women needed rights, (Unfair!), how only men could change laws
--showed things Elizabeth did to prove herself, her education
--tells how she and her friends decided to have a meeting about women’s rights
--reveals Elizabeth’s shocking idea to help women change things (getting the vote) vocabulary to pre-teach or clarify during story:

Preposterous!   abolitionist flabbergasted   waver Declaration of Independence

questions:
1. What did Elizabeth learn about fairness men for girls and women? (girls pitied, woman lost farm, only could change laws—by voting)
2. What did Elizabeth do to prove she was as good as a boy? (horse hurdles, rafting, extra study)
3. What was Elizabeth’s idea for making things more fair for women? (getting the vote for women so they could help change unfair laws)
4. How did people react to Elizabeth’s idea? (even friends were shocked, world was not ready, but she kept working)

Ida B. Wells: Let the Truth Be Told

by Walter Dean Myers, illustrated by Bonnie Christensen

read-aloud time: about 13 minutes

level: advanced vocabulary, despite picture book appearance; strong content; could be used as a read-aloud for 5th-7th with re-phrasing, explaining

33 pages, illustrated with color drawings, +4 pages with a timeline of her life, quotations from Ida repeated advanced vocabulary: constitution, amendment, lynching, boycott, eloquence, opportunities, conductor, incident, influential, dastardly, inauguration, articles, essays, attorney, nationalist, dynamic

summary:
--a moving biography of Ida Wells
--presents her unfailing advocacy against civil rights abuses, esp. lynching
--mentions her interaction with Susan B. Anthony and Jane Addams
--one page of text (p. 30) and one illustration on suffrage, including her refusal to be segregated when marching in a suffrage parade in Washington

questions:

How did Ida respond to unfair treatment of herself and others?
(resistance, law suit, writing and publishing, speaking, running for office)

What were Ida’s greatest strengths? How did she use them?
(courage, reading and writing, working with others, telling the truth)
(to fight for justice, shred light on wrongs, rally others)

What did getting the vote for women mean to Ida?
(a tool for political change, esp. for black women)
Sojourner Truth

by Laura Hamilton Waxman Barnes & Noble, History Maker Bios, 2008

level: 4th-7th grade

48 pages, 5 chapters, varied illustrations
+ table of contents, intro, timeline, honors received, resources, bibliography, index

summary:
--life as a slave in NY, being sold away from parents, love, marriage, children
--running away to freedom, son sold South and she sued to get him back
--life as a free woman, became a traveling preacher, changing her name
--joined a community, learned about abolition and suffrage, spoke for them
--supported her causes and the Civil War, went to help freed slaves in D.C.
--advocated for poor and working women, tried to vote (turned away)

You Want Women to Vote, Lizzie Stanton?

by Jean Fritz, illustrated by DyAnne DiSalvo-Ryan Penguin Putnam Books, 1995

level: chapter book, comprehensive coverage, 5th-8th grade

88 pages, 8 chapters, illustrated with full page black/white drawings
+ quotations, end notes, bibliography, index

summary:
--childhood, marriage and abolition conference, motherhood
--Seneca Falls convention, bloomers, partnering with Susan B. Anthony
--work on NY marriage laws, more babies, running for office
--Kansas campaigns, starting their magazine and national organization
--lecturing, writing history of suffrage, petitions for suffrage amendment
You Forgot Your Skirt, Amelia Bloomer

by Shana Corey, illustrated by Chesley McLaren, 2000, Scholastic Press level:  read-aloud and discuss – late 2nd-5th grade independent reading - 3rd-5th grade

read-aloud time: about 6 minutes

36 picture book pages  (colorful drawings)
Minimal text in a curly font that might be a problem for youngest readers.
+ one page Author’s Note with details on Amelia Bloomer and bloomers

summary:
--tells of 1800s suffragist, Amelia Bloomer, who did not want to be a proper lady including not voting
--shows problems with fashions of the day, like long, heavy skirts, corsets, hoops
--shows a visit from Libby in a totally new kind of outfit (pants under a skirt)
--reveals reactions, pro and con, of others to the new outfit
--demonstrates what Amelia could do in the new outfit
--tells how Amelia publicized the outfit and its pattern, so it was named “Bloomers”

vocabulary to pre-teach or explain as you go:

   “proper lady”            words to express reactions:
corset                      was aghast hoops                       Shocking! townspeople         Marvelous!
pattern (for dressmaking)      I declare!
improper                      Balderdash!

intro: Describe how, in a long ago time, women and girls wore only dresses and skirts.
       They were supposed to stay at home, not have jobs, and were not allowed to vote.

questions:

1. How was Amelia different from   (wanted to vote, have a job, dress differently) proper ladies?

2. What was wrong with the clothes   (too heavy, too long, drug in dirt, too tight) ladies were supposed to wear?

3. Why couldn’t little girls run or  (had to dress like the grown-up ladies) climb trees?

4. What new kind of clothes did Libby  (pants, but covered by a shorter skirt) wear?
show Amelia?
Books about Susan B. Anthony

in order of increasing reading level, length, and complexity

Susan B. Anthony, by Martha E. H. Rustad from Pebble Books, First Biographies series, 2002 illustrated with black/white photographs 24 pages: her early life, beliefs, work for women’s rights timeline at bottom of each page, table of contents, glossary, index

Susan B. Anthony: Fighter for Women’s Rights, by Deborah Hopkinson from Ready-to-Read (Level 3): Stories of Famous Americans illustrated with color drawings 24 pages: early life, early activism, speaking tours, Civil War, illegal voting, last speech timeline of her life

Susan B. Anthony and the Women’s Movement from Heinemann Library, 2008 illustrated with black/white photographs + color drawings 32 pages on women’s rights in the 1800s, conventions, her allies, illegal voting, WY & CO, Alice Paul, amendment passed table of contents, glossary words in bold text, life long ago, timeline, resources, index

Susan B. Anthony: a Photo-Illustrated Biography, by Lucile Davis from Bridgestone Books, 1998 32 pages: Quaker heritage, early years, teaching, Stanton, petitioning, abolition, newspaper, speaking tours, amendment
table of contents, famous quotations, important dates, vocabulary, index

Susan B. Anthony, by Stephanie Sammartino McPherson from Barnes & Noble, History Maker Bios, 2006 illustrated with black/white photos and color drawings 48 pages: intro, Quaker beginning, teaching career, abolition, suffrage, bloomers, petitions, lecture tours, 1876 centennial speech table of contents, timeline, resources, bibliography, index and working women, tried to vote (turned away)

HOORAY for GIRLS and WOMEN

_A is for Abigail: An Almanac of Amazing American Women_
by Lynne Cheney illustrated by Robin Preiss Glasser
Simon & Schuster Books for Young Readers, 2003 4th-8th grade, 24 pg.
an alphabet book with one or more women for each letter, color drawings, quotations, short descriptions + end notes

_Girls Think of Everything: Stories of Ingenious Inventions by Women_ by Catherine Thimmesh illustrated by Melissa Sweet Houghton Mifflin Harcourt, 2000
5th to 7th grade, 60 pg.
four page stories on inventors (paper bags to Kevlar)
+ chronological list, names of competitions, sources, index

_Hidden Figures: The True Story of Four Black Women and the Space Race,_ by Margot Lee Shetterly with Winifred Conkling illustrated by Laura Freeman
Harper, 2018
4th to 7th grade picture book, 30 pg. + timeline, four profiles, glossary, author’s note

_She Persisted: 13 American Women Who Changed the World_
by Chelsea Clinton, illustrated by Alexandra Boiger
Philomel Books, 2017
3rd to 6th grade picture book highlighting: Harriet Tubman, Helen Keller, Clara Lemlich, Nellie Bly, Virginia Apgar, Maria Tallchief, Claudette Colvin, Ruby Bridges, Margaret Chase Smith, Sally Ride, Florence Griffith Joyner, Oprah Winfrey, Sonia Sotomayor, two pages each
She Persisted Around the World: 13 Women Who Changed History
by Chelsea Clinton, illustrated by Alexandra Boiger
Philomel Books, 2018
3rd to 6th grade

picture book highlighting: Sor Juana Ines De La Cruz, Caroline Herschel, Kate Sheppard, Marie Curie, Viola Desmond, Mary Verghese, Aisha Rateb, Wangari Maathal, Joanne Rowling,
Sissi Lima do Amor, Leymah Gbowee, Yuan Yuan Tan, Malala Yousafzai

Watch Out for Clever Women! Cuidado Con las Mujeres Astutas!
folktales told in Spanish and English by Joe Hayes illustrated by Vicki Trego Hill stories of women solving problems, saving family members, and foiling villains with sheer brain power 2nd grade to adult

Women of the West
by Bobbie Kalman & Jane Lewis
Crabtree Publishing Company, 2011 4th to 8th grade well illustrated 32 page book about women pioneers:
moving to the West, living and working there, clothing, family life, wanting rights and the vote;
includes immigrants, African Americans and Native Americans as groups and individuals glossary and index

INDIVIDUAL STORIES

Anne Hutchinson (History Maker Bios)
by Susan Bivin Aller, Barnes & Noble, 2010 3rd to 6th grade, 48 pg.
an educated Puritan woman, mother of 15, angered Boston preachers by interpreting the Bible and adding her own ideas; was put on trial for holding meetings in her home, criticizing the ministers, defended herself, said God talked to her; was banished, later killed; her descendants include 3 US presidents

Mrs. Lincoln's Dressmaker:
The Unlikely Friendship of Elizabeth Keckley & Mary Todd Lincoln
by Lynda Jones, National Geographic, 2009 5th-8th grade, 80 pg.

37 years as a slave, Elizabeth bought freedom for herself and her son, became a successful dressmaker in D.C.

Mary lost social status in marrying Lincoln; strove to assert herself as First Lady partly through fashion, Elizabeth became her dressmaker, confidante, and loyal friend, tried to help Mary after Lincoln’s death

Nellie Bly (History Maker Bios)
by Shannon Knudsen, Barnes & Noble, 2005
3rd to 6th grade, 48 pg.

48 page biography with drawing and photos from childhood through her career as a reporter, and after; undercover reporting on factory work and a mental institution; frustrations she faced as a woman in a traditionally male profession; her round-the-world in 80 trip, fame

Sacagawea (History Maker Bios)
by Jane Sutcliffe, Barnes & Noble, 2009
3rd to 6th grade, 48 pg.

48 page biography with drawing and photos a young Shoshone woman travels with her new baby and husband on the Lewis and Clark expedition, helping them in many ways; how she saw the ocean and got to vote on where to place their winter fort; 2 different points of view in Indian versions of her story

The Story of Ruby Bridges
by Robert Coles, illustrated by George Ford Scholastic, 1995
3rd to 6th grade
In New Orleans in 1960, Ruby Bridges, age 6, enters first grade as part of court-ordered desegregation, escorted by marshals past angry protesters, and prays for them. 14 pages, predominately color drawings

Susan Anderson: Colorado's Doc Susie (A Now You Know Bio) by Lydia Griffin, Filter Press, 2010
4th-8th grade, 72 pg,

an 1897 graduate from medical school, who overcame family disruption, personal setbacks, and TB to become a beloved mountain doctor in CO never married or had children, cared deeply for her patients (often unable to pay her), practiced medicine until she was 84 served as coroner to investigate deaths of workers on the Moffat Tunnel (extra information on topics such as Elizabeth Blackwell, TB, the Depression)

GREAT for GIRLS

I Am Enough
by Grace Byers, illustrated by Keturah A. Bobo Harper Collins, 2018
K-3rd grade
picture book affirming self confidence and acceptance of others diversity shown in illustrations

Princesses Wear Pants
by Savannah Guthrie and Allison Oppenheim illustrated by Eva Byrne Abrams Books for Young Readers, 2017 picture book written in rhyme
Penelope wears pants when she wants to do activities where they work best. 1st to 4th grade